

World Rose News Editor Position

The World Rose News Editor is required to produce the electronic WFRS Newsletter three to four times each year. The frequency of publication is based on sending out the newsletter as soon after a convention as possible with articles relevant to the proceedings of that Convention and the remaining issues interspersed as evenly as possible. WRN needs to cover each convention and the pre- and post-convention activities. Delegates to the Convention are invited ahead of time by the Editor to contribute. Issues of WRN cover the reports from the President, Convention reports and activities, reports from the Vice Presidents, reports from Standing Committee Chairmen, reprints of articles of interest about roses and messages to our readers about coming events.

It is preferable for the Editor to attend all conventions. The incoming Editor needs to agree to a commitment for 3 years, from one World Rose Convention to the next with renewal for a further 3 years (maximum of 6 years) by mutual consent. Members of the Publication Committee proofread WRN before it goes to the Executive Director for distribution.

The Editor is answerable to the Publications Committee Chairman and the President. A detailed description of the tasks the Editor undertakes will be provided to applicants upon request. All enquiries should be made to the Chairman of the Publications Committee or the Executive Director.

Send your application to the Chairman of the Publications Committee with copies to the President and Executive Director by 30 April, 2018:
